In the Margins of the Global Humanitarian Policy Forum

Workshop on advancing the ambition of the Agenda for Humanity
Learning from the process so far and moving the change agenda forward

Tuesday, 12 December, 2:00pm-5:30pm (Conference Room 11, UN Building)

OBJECTIVES: Identify through peer-to-peer learning what has helped and what are the challenges in moving forward the change agenda from the World Humanitarian Summit.

Identify opportunities for building on momentum and how partners can support one another toward shared ambitions.

OUTCOME: Summary note of the discussion and pertinent lessons/ issues emerging from experiences shared.

AGENDA

2:00-2:05  Introduction

2:05-2:15  Annual Synthesis Report on Progress since the Summit (Kate Yarlett, OCHA)

– Observations on what have we learned from the process so far?

2:15-3:00  Breakout Session #1 – What has helped to promote change, and what is hindering it?

• What has helped progress?
• What has hindered progress?
• What has been your major insight or discovery so far?

Questions will be on walls; groups will have cards to put thoughts/ answers under the respective questions

3:00-3:45  Breakout Session #2 – How can we accelerate change?

• How can you build on areas of momentum?
• What conversation if began today, could create new possibilities for the future of the initiative/ or address new challenges?
• How can individual efforts work together to support shared ambitions?
  (initiative to initiative; within initiatives; at global policy level).

Questions will be on walls; groups will have cards to put thoughts/ answers under the respective questions
